#	Item	Presenter	Action
6)	Committee Reports-
6.c)	Building Committee L.Walker not present to give report; M.Becker - reporting at this time. 3rd floor issues discussed with R.Sickler. Board should look into having an on-call replacement/sub for George (no one available if George is out sick) Heating needed for front security system (functionality issues in the cold) Doors are not energy efficient and should be replaced. New windows should be added to front. Maintenance schedule (for building projects) in development, so the Board can take action before a problem develops Library has good relationships with current contractors Stairs into building are pulling away, and need to be addresses C.Ferlito has tasked George with pricing electrical fixes.	L.Walker	report
6.d)	Personnel Committee Looked at job descriptions of OPL staff; they match the job descriptions of similar libraries. Issue of finding substitutes remains, due to civil service test set by city. More volunteers needed in library, more with tech training. Must allot time for R.Sculin to create binder of duties for her eventual replacement. Evaluation tools currently used by C.Ferlito will be evaluated, new created, as needed. Committee will be proactive in procedures for replacements (2-3 in one year)	K.Mantaro	report
6.e)	Policy Committee C.Ferlito and J.Sgarlata are on the committee No meeting yet.	J.Sgarlata	report
6.f)	Library Services Committee- First meeting was 23-SEP-14 (Members: E.Elsner, C.Wilcox, A.Ross) Committee discussed numerous topics, including databases, new computers, possible grants, fundraising, and goals. See Committee Report for full details.	A.Ross	report
6.g)	Technology Committee- First meeting was 23-SEP-14 (Members: D.Collins,K.Swartz, M.Redding, C.Wilcox, A.Ross) Committee discussed numerous topics, including working with FOL, fundraisers, outreach. See Committee Report for full details.	E.Elsner	report
6.h)	Art Gallery Committee- Charlie Young will retire this year Mindy Ostrow can't commit to this year, but may be available in the future. She will send a list of names of possible volunteers. K.Mantaro also has a short list of possible replacements. Next meeting, the Board will discuss and review possible replacements, and vote in December.	C.Ferlito	report
6.i)	Nomination Committee-		no report
7)	Old Business-
7.a)	Palladium Times The director of the SUNY Oswego Library has let C.Ferlito know that all archival copies of the Palladium Times must be removed from Penfield Library storage. Issues to discuss: quality of microform scans, ability to keep paper, options for new scans. M.Niess wants to keep the paper, and will contact historical companies Table for November agenda	C.Ferlito	discussion
7.b)	North Country Circulation Policy C.Ferlito provided a summary of NCLS changes, and Oswego's preferred policies, such as a cap of 4 DVDs. Vote at 9.b	C.Ferlito	discussion
7.c)	Disaster Policy 5.13 Discussion of wording in disaster policies (vote at 9.b)	J.Sgarlata	discussion
8)	New Business-
8.a)	Director's Report C.Ferlito covered all content in other areas; there are no action items, see the full report for details.	C.Ferlito	report
8.b)	NCLS conference / Barclay update C.Santos & C.Ferlito attended the NCLS conference. Noted the Keynote speaker suggested using humor in your work. C.Ferlito noted W.Barclay is very pro-library	K.Mantaro, C.Santos	report
8.c)	Tourism Display This will be moved under the purview of the Services Committee . Janet Clerkson is open and excited about having materials in the library, and will split the cost of the stand. This is an easy service to provide, and space was recently vacated by the FOL display (now located near the elevator) K.Mantaro notes that the Liverpool PL has displays if Board members want to see as example.	M.Niess	discussion
8.d)	CLRC grant writing workshop Workshop sponsored by NYLA (in Syracuse) C.Santos will attend Future sessions will be open to volunteers	C.Santos	report
